WILLIAM H. HUNTER.

It was with deep regret that the dispatch announcing the death of William H. Hunter at Chillicothe, O., was received in this city yesterday. Mr. Hunter, who was a brother of Judge Samuel H. Hunter, of Newark, was the talented editor of the Chillicothe News-Advertiser. His death is little less than a civic calamity, as a prominent Chillicothe man states it, for no other man has done so much for the new Chillicothe. It was William H. Hunter who aroused the old town and made it take on new life.

Mr. Hunter was a brilliant writer, splendid citizen and a good friend. He is gone but his memory will remain and the good work that he has done will live after him.

Word comes from Richmond, Ind., today that the Art Association of that city has just bought a picture painted by Mr. H. M. Walcott of Newark. Mr. Walcott is a talented artist and his wife, formerly Miss Belle Havens, shares honors with him as her pictures have attracted widespread attention and favorable comment.

Lieut. Governor Harris who succeeds the late Governor Pattison will draw a salary of $10,000 for the next two and one half years. He is the first governor of Ohio to receive more than $8000 per annum. The governor's salary was raised by the legislature last winter, but the increase could not apply to the incumbent, Governor Pattison. It has

PROUD OF JUDGE DONAHUE.

The news of the ovation accorded Judge Maurice H. Donahue at the Newark convention when he was renominated as a candidate for the Circuit bench, was received with pleasure by many friends here, irrespective of political creed. Five years ago Judge Donahue was elected by a majority of 5,000. LULU SURRENDERS
STOLEN DRESSES

AFTER BEING ASSURED THAT NO
ARREST WOULD BE MADE FOR THE CRIME.

Chief Sheridan Receives Letters from Muncie, Asking Him to Locate
Miss Lulu.

Chief James Sheridan of the local police department, received a letter from the chief of police of Muncie, Ind., requesting him to locate, if possible, a girl named Lulu Willis, about 16 or 17 years of age, who left that city on Tuesday for this city. The girl was charged with having stolen a large quantity of dress goods, consisting of two silk petticoats, white shirt waists and several dress skirts, from the home of a family named Pearson, for whom she worked while in Muncie.

On Wednesday Officer James Callan located the girl at 358 Barclay street, Texas, and secured the clothing from her after informing her that the Muncie authorities would not cause her arrest in case she turned over the property. The father of the girl is William Willis.

Offering no excuse the girl handed the property over to the officer and it was at once returned to the owner at Muncie.

DICKERSON IS IN GOOD SPIRITS

WILL BE TAKEN TO THE ANNEX
OF PENITENTIARY IN ABOUT TEN DAYS.

Delays of the Law May Put Off Ben's
Execution Until Some Time
Next Spring.

Coshocton, O., June 21.—The bill of costs in the case of Benjamin Dickerson, which the state will pay to the county, amounts to $3,751.88. The items are as follows:

Witness fees, $278.27.
Clerk's costs, $373.67.
Sheriff's costs, $265.49.
Justice costs, $10.45.
Constable fees, $25.
Court stenographer, $294.
Total, $3,751.88.

To this amount is to be added a sum of between $600 and $700 to cover the expense of making a transcript for the defendant attorneys on which they make out their bill of error to the Circuit court.

It had been planned to take Dickerson to the annex of the state penitentiary on the morning train, and then on the noon train yesterday, but the question arose over the item for making the transcript of the evidence. This work has not yet been completed and the exact amount could not be ascertained by Prosecutor Glenn yesterday. It was finally decided to defer taking the prisoner away until this item of cost could be determined.

Dickerson says he still has several chances for his life and he does not propose to give up hope until the last means of escape has failed.

The case will be taken on error to the Circuit court, with the appeal going a motion for a stay of execution. This matter will probably be heard in chambers and the stay granted, as the court cannot hear the case until November while the day of execution is set for September 18. Should error be found in the Circuit court the case would be remanded to Common Pleas court for a new trial. Should the Circuit court not reverse the lower court then the Dickerson attorneys will probably ask leave of the state Supreme court to file an appeal with it. Should this be denied then the only power that can save Dickerson will be the governor or board of pardons. It is certain that months will be consumed in fighting the case through the higher courts and there is no likelihood that the execution, if it occurs at all, will take place before spring.

Dickerson is spending his time at the county jail in a mood of indifference and he keeps in his usual good spirits. For a week after sentence was imposed upon him he was silent and pensive but this soon wore away and now he is his old self again. Yesterday his brother, Josh, came in to see him for the last time. The men engaged in conversation for some time and when Josh finally came to leave he seized the condemned man by the hand and looked upon him as for the last time while tears streamed down his face. Ben was not in the slightest affected and did not show agitation either in voice or manner.

The trip to Columbus may not be made for a week or ten days now, as the sheriff will be occupied with other duties in the meantime.

DOWIE'S FATHER REACHES CHICAGO

Leaves Seclusion of Iowa Home to Refute Son's Assertions and Clear Wife's Name.

Chicago, June 21.—Disowned by his son, John Murray Dowie, father of John Alexander, "the first apostle," arrived in Chicago alone, having left the seclusion of his cottage in Essex, Iowa, to refute the assertions of his son and clear the name of his dead wife. The appearance of the apostle's father is the result of efforts of the Volvia faction in the present litigation in Judge Landis' court. It is expected that the elder Dowie will go on the stand to prove his son, in declaring he was not the son of John Murray Dowie, either testified falsely or prove he was mentally unbalanced.

Des Moines, Ia., June 21.—John Murray Dowie of Essex, Ia., father of John Alexander Dowie, left for Chicago carrying with him important documents which he will present to Chicago courts in an effort to establish his identity and relationship with his son of Zion City. "I expect to set at rest forever any and all doubt as to my relationship with Zion's prophet," declared Mr. Dowie. "My son, for reasons not apparent to me, has sought to discredit the relationship of father and son. I have the documents with me and will be able to prove conclusively that I am just what I have represented myself to be—the father of John Alexander Dowie."

"Star" Is The Password

"Star" is the password to every man's good fellowship, simply because it is recognized everywhere as the best chew made.

You could offer no chew so rich, sweet, juicy and substantial as

STAR
PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO

Other kinds may seem cheaper from their size and price, but "Star" always proves the most economical chew, because the choice, ripe, substantial leaf in "Star" chews waxy, sweet and juicy—twice as long as most chews.

"Star" is still, as for forty years, the same full weight 16 oz. plug, the same high quality, the same popular price.

No wonder "Star" sales equal the sales of any five other kinds!

Akron, June 21.—Opportunity hits by Akron mixed with inopportune clinkers by Newark made the down state team an easy victim Wednesday afternoon. A bad bouncer by a single by Wratten, that carried the sphere over Tim Callahan's head for a tripple, saved the team from a whitewash.

No Hit Cecil Armstrong was touched up to a lively tune by the visitors, but the bingles were in a long procession except Wratten's tripple. "Rats" tripple followed by a single by Danny Davis in the sixth frame.

Silent Man Stone pitched winning ball in every inning but the sixth and eighth. The game was sewed up beyond all hope in next to the last round. "Cap" East opened the eighth with a single. Nallin and Mahay were powerless. Stone issued the only pass of the clash to Schwartz. Strood followed with a single, scoring East, and Armstrong sent in Schwartz and Strood by a scoring single to the middleward.

Akron scored once in the third on errors. "Lefty" Snyder, Danny Davis, Sam Havel and Snodgrass clinched in the third and one run came in. The round was opened with a single by Callahan. Snyder dropped a fly by Ortlieb. Davis erred on a drive by Butler. East put one at Wratten so hot that it came and went. "Rats" recovered in time to throw to the plate. Callahan arrived with the ball and banged into Snodgrass, who let the sphere get away. A telescope by Schlatter to Snodgrass, then to Havel at first, ended the innig with the bases full.

The sixth was productive of runs for Akron. Butler opened the stanza with a single. East was hit by the ball. One of Stone's hardest and swiftest curves took the big manager on the left cheek bone. East was knocked down and the skin broken. Nallin scored Butler with a single. East was caught between home and third, through Schwartz failing to go through with his part of the squeeze play, Schwartz batting. Mathay followed with a bingle and Nallin came in.

Umpire Franklin put Wratten out of the game in the seventh for disputing a decision at third. Franklin's umpiring was a joke. He gave neither side the worst of it, but was way off on a number of decisions. The players ran the game more than the umpire. Score:

New Castle, Pa., June 21.—A bad third inning for Yarnell, in which he was found for three safe hits and a couple of passes, netted the Outlaws four runs yesterday afternoon and sewed the game up for the home team. Bowers was in rare form and with perfect support up to the seventh inning, had allowed only 18 men to face him. In the seventh Runen let a long fly through his glove putting Specs on second. Mansfield's Schlatter to Snodgrass, then to Havel at first, ended the innig with the bases full.

The sixth was productive of runs for Akron. Butler opened the stanza with a single. East was hit by the ball. One of Stone's hardest and swiftest curves took the big manager on the left cheek bone. EX-PRISONERS OF WAR TO MEET

REUNION WILL BE HELD JUNE 27TH AND 28TH IN TOWN OF WESTERVILLE.

Andersonville Prayer Meeting Will Be Held Thursday Morning, Rev. T. J. Sheppard Leading.

The Ohio Association of Union ex-Prisoners of War, will be held at Westerville on Wednesday and Thursday, June 27 and 28, and extensive arrangements are already making for the event. At 10 o'clock on the morning of the opening day of the reunion there will be a reception of ex-prisoners of war by comrades at the Grand Army hall, and in the afternoon of the same day there will be a reception of ex-prisoners of war by the comrades of James Price Post Ladies of the W. R. C., and citizens of Westerville, followed by welcome addresses by the mayor, post commander of James Price Post, and representatives of the Relief Corp and W. C. T. U., the exercises being interspersed with music. In the evening a camp fire will be held at Otterbein chapel, which will include addresses and songs by old comrades. On Thursday morning at 7:30 the Andersonville prayer meeting will be held, which will be in charge of Rev. T. J. Sheppard of Granville, formerly chaplain of Andersonville prison, and others. At 9 o'clock the annual address will be delivered by Comrade John Sall, president of the State Association of ex-Prisoners of War and election of officers for the ensuing year. A great time is anticipated by the old ex-prisoners of war.

LEVI BEVARD

(Continued from Page 1.) The adjournment was taken until 1 o'clock when Mr. Smythe began his argument. He will be followed by his father, B. G. Smythe, and Mr. Fitzgibbon will close for the State.

Interest does not in the least wane in the case, and the usual crowd was present when court opened at 8:30. The defendant sat in his accustomed place to the left of his wife and maintained his usual calm demeanor. He displayed no emotion as Mr. Fulton on frequent occasions pointedly accused him of the brutal murder of his aunt and mother-in-law, Mrs. Frances Wertz. His two brothers William and Stephen, and other relatives sat near him.

The interest was intense and during the argument of the assistant state's attorney not a sound except that of his voice, could be heard. As usual there was a large proportion of women present in the audience.

The case will probably be submitted to the jury Friday afternoon or evening.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

WILLIAM VANATTA.

"I was at the Wertz home the day Mrs. Wertz was killed; got there about 6:00; examined footprints in a plowed field; the footprints were southwest of the house; they were barefoot prints. I stepped the distance between the footprints; I would say that the person who made the tracks had been running."

Cross-examined by B. G. Smythe.

Are you a judge?

If you're not a judge of good clothes, it would be well to keep your weather-eye open.

Don't buy trash.

It's easy to make cheap spring clothes.

Some people make them so cheap that they're dear at any price.

It's a good idea to go to a house that has a reputation for selling good clothes.

You'll be safe in coming here for it's "money back" if anything goes wrong.

HARVEY PIERSON.

"I live in McKean township; was at Wertz' home the morning she was killed; examined footprints; would say they were made by a person who was running."

By B. G. Smythe: "Followed the tracks several hundred feet."

GRANT McFADDEN.

"Was down to Wertz' home that morning; examined footprints in a plowed field; followed the tracks about 150 yards; I should say that the person who made them was running."

By Mr. B. G. Smythe: "Couldn't say the distance between the steps varied, or that it did not."

EDWARD CLYNN.

"Live in McKean township; examined footprints in plowed ground; followed them about 15 rods; would say the person making the tracks was running; they were far apart."

By B. G. Smythe: "I noticed no variation in distance."

WM. J. BRYAN IS NOW IN NORWAY

WILL WITNESS CORONATION OF KING HAAKON THERE ON FRIDAY.

Says It Is Too Early to Predict What National Democratic Platform Will Be.

Trondhjem, Norway, June 21—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Bryan arrived today and are the guests of United States Minister to Sweden Graves who was appointed envoy to represent the United States at the coronation of King Haakon tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will be present at the coronation ceremonies.

In an interview with your representative today Mr. Bryan said today that he was not yet able to determine his position relative to the changes in the American political situation during his tour of the old world. Asked if he thought the Democrats would win the next election, Mr. Bryan said jocosely: "The Democrats always win this far ahead."

Mr. Bryan said it was too far ahead for any one to predict what the Democratic platform would be. It seemed to him that the tide was turning against the trusts. Concluding, Mr. Bryan said: "Somethings denounced as radical in 1896 are now considered conservative because the people have been studying and have found that radical legislation is really a protection to honestly acquired wealth. Nothing is more dangerous to legitimate accumulations than abuses long uncorrected."

ANARCHISTS ARRESTED.

Trondhjem, June 1—Several well known anarchists from Europe, Great Britain and the United States, have been quietly arrested and confined until after the coronation of King Haakon and the departure of the royal representatives at the event. The authorities have seized a number of bombs and internal machines, besides securing papers showing the existence of a widespread conspiracy similar to the bomb throwing at Madrid after the wedding of King Alfonso. King Haakon has been kept in ignorance of the steps taken for his protection, but his every move is closely guarded.

WOMEN LEO

cause which State's Attorney Orr refuses to divulge.

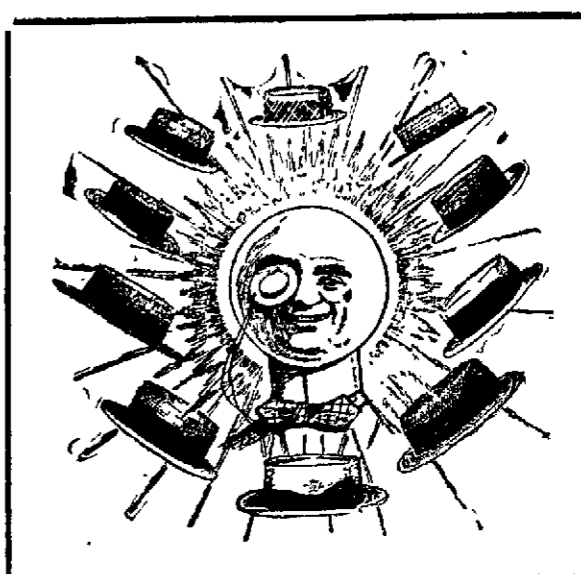

Mrs. Kaufmann is in the same cell occupied by the two Indians who were executed in the jail yard a year ago. Outside is her husband, who refuses to leave her.

The crime charged against Mrs. Kaufmann is of the most atrocious nature. It is said that she subjected her servant, Agnes Polreis to such treatment as beating with a poker, scalding her, having the hired man dress these wounds, rubbing on turpentine and bathing the tender flesh in water and wood ashes. Erickson, the hired man, testified he had seen the girl on her knees, pleading for mercy. The body when exhumed, was found to have 49 cuts, abrasions and bruises.

Four servants testified that Mrs. Kaufmann had a temper like a demon. This is believed inasmuch as she was adopted by the family of Jacob Rlum of this city, being taken from a band of roving gypsies. Anna Jensen and Mrs. Oscar Larson are among the girls testifying to cruel treatment. They assign the uncanny motive for her mistreatment of her servants to her disposition to avenge the death of her only daughter some 10 years ago, for they have heard her rave at Providence for leaving her. The only explanation of the girl's injuries made by the Kaufmann's is that she fell down stairs. She had no medical attention until the day she died. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Polreis, of Parkston, S. D., are prostrated. The mother has several times gone to her daughter's grave and thrown herself on the ground and asked to be left to die there.

A physician was called to the jail to attend Mrs. Kaufmann, who had collapsed as the result of her trying experience in the court room. The excitement is subsiding.
